

7. If the “all” in Eph. 5:20 and 1 Thess. 5:18 does not exclude anything, does that mean we thank God for sin, wickedness and evil? Explain your answer.

8. How can a person be thankful when he doesn't feel thankful?

9. How do Job 1:9-22 and Is. 36:13-37:1 help us in adversity?

10. How does the two-directional view of worship help us in adversity?

11. What is the relationship between God's sovereignty, His rights and our rights?

12. How can we “accept the adversities but not the anxieties” (pg. 227)?

13. Why is 1 Pet. 5:6 so important in dealing with anxiety?

14. How does 2 Cor. 12:9,10 help us deal with anxieties?

15. How do Gen. 50:20 and Rom. 8:28, 29 help us prevent and deal with resentment and/or bitterness resulting from other people deliberately or accidentally hurting us?

16. Even though praying for deliverance is encouraged by the Bible, what caution must be kept in mind? What makes that caution so important?

17. We are told deliverance doesn't come because of our lack of faith. Is that true? Explain your answer.

18. What is the relation between Christ's teaching to pray, "do not lead us into temptation" (Matt. 6:13) and James teaching to "resist the devil" (James 4:7)? How are we helped by Jer. 17:9, 1 Cor. 10:12, 1 Pet. 5:8 and Matt. 26:41?

19. If adversity is due to deliberate human effort to make our life miserable, how do Phil 1:14-18 and Rom. 8:28-29 help us have victory in that situation?

20. Write a one sentence summary of the book.

21. Which truth has been of most help to you?